OVERDRAFT PROTECTION

- We offer standard overdraft services with your account. An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction (also called “nonsufficient funds”), but we elect, in our sole and absolute discretion, to pay it anyway.
- We pay overdraft at our sole discretion based on a variety of factors that may change from time to time, including such factors as your account profile, history, volume of deposits and past overdraft activities. This means we do not guarantee that we will authorize and pay any type of transaction.
- You may opt out of the Bank’s standard overdraft services by notifying your banking team in writing. If you opt out of the standard overdraft services, you are instructing us to return unpaid all items presented against nonsufficient funds, which may result in fees.
- Please refer to the Standard Overdraft Services disclosure and Commercial Banking (Non-Analysis) Fee Schedule for details regarding the standard overdraft services policy, including applicable fees and terms. You can find these documents on our Account Terms and Fees page: <https://www.blusa.valley.com/account-terms-and-fees>.
